

Clear Channel Outdoor endorses friend to the arts:
Robert "The Traveler" Hill
for Tacoma City Council Position No. 7*

Over a week, in an unprecedented move the largest billboard operator in Tacoma has politicized the bulk of her holdings to the election campaign of a man known as "The Traveler." For over a week local residents have been increasingly confused by all 190+ billboards branded with an enigmatic CONSTITUTION MATTERS motto; as of this press release--mystery solved.

In an email interview with Clear Channel Outdoor's consumer quality manager, Greg Severson says: "Mr Hill's motto captures the spirit of how we believe this country [or city] should be led. We're all to happy to buffalo that exuberance onto the public imagination... which, of course, benefits us in our long run."

WE SEEK FELLOW TRAVELERS who UPHOLD THESE IDEALS:

1. There are to many cops bossing people around, telling us what we can & cant do to ourselves or others.
2. Not enough guns in our schools!
3. Female Masturbation Day would bring joy to countless millions.
4. The Tacoma Dome must be destroyed at any cost.
5. Artists are worthy of suspicion.
